

First Reading ~ Proverbs 25:6-7

Do not put yourself forward in the king’s presence or stand in the place of the great; for it is better to be told, ‘Come up here’, than to be put lower in the presence of a noble. What your eyes have seen?

R: The Word of the Lord.
C: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading ~ Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, ‘I will never leave you or forsake you.’ So we can say with confidence, ‘The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?’ Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

R: The Word of the Lord.
C: Thanks be to God.

First Reading

Proverbs 25:6-7

PSALM 112 (read responsively)

R: Happy are those who fear the LORD, who greatly delight in his commandments.

C: Their descendants will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

R: Wealth and riches are in their houses, and their righteousness endures for ever.

C: They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright; they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.

R: It is well with those who deal generously and lend, who conduct their affairs with justice.

C: For the righteous will never be moved; they will be remembered for ever.

R: They are not afraid of evil tidings; their hearts are firm, secure in the LORD.

C: Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid; in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.

R: They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor; their righteousness endures for ever; their horn is exalted in honour.

C: The wicked see it and are angry; they gnash their teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever, Amen.
